

Express Yourself Art Show: The Air We Breathe

Guidelines and Entry Form

This art show, sponsored by the Daniel Boone Regional Library, is free and open to anyone of any age in the Mid-Missouri community. The theme of this year's show is "The Air We Breathe," the title of this year's One Read book by Andrea Barrett.

Entries may be in any two- or three-dimensional media. Two-dimensional works should be matted or mounted but need not be framed. Cut out and attach the form below to the back of your entry. If submitting a photo, you may need to include a subject release form (available at oneread.dbrl.org) completed by each person in the photo.

Submit artwork by Monday, September 14 to any Daniel Boone Regional Library or bookmobile stop. One entry per artist.

Entries will be judged in three independent groups, depending on the library at which they are received (or the closest library in the case of bookmobile entries). The library retains the right not to display works inappropriate to the theme or setting.

Visit oneread.dbrl.org or call (573) 443-3161 or 1-800-324-4806 for more information.

You may pick up your work, once the shows in September are over, at the library or bookmobile stop to which you submitted it.

Entry Form:

One Read Art Show 2009 • Daniel Boone Regional Library

Name _____

Phone Number _____

Title or caption:

Tell us something about your work (optional):

Signature _____

Your signature indicates acceptance of all contest guidelines.

Library / Bookmobile stop _____